

Manging Judges: Technology, History, and Separation of Powers

University of Haifa, Faculty of Law – December 21-23, 2016

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

December 21

- MORNING SESSION (9:00-10:30) – Opening Remarks, Prof. Amnon Reichman followed by roundtable discussion: Judicial Administration in the 21st Century – An Interdisciplinary Overview
 - Prof. Malcolm Feeley (University of California, Berkeley)
 - Prof. Bryant Garth (University of California, Irvine)
 - Prof. Amnon Reichman (University of Haifa)
 - Prof. Shimon Shetreet (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

- LATE MORNING SESSION (11:00-12:30) – Paper presentation and discussion: Shlomi Balaban, Amnon Reichman, & Yair Sagy, From a Panacea to a Panopticon – the Use and Misuse of Technology in the Regulation of Judges
Commentators:
 - Dr. Orna Rabinovich-Einy (University of Haifa)
 - Prof. Tal Zarsky (University of Haifa)
 - Prof. Neta Ziv (Tel Aviv University)

- AFTERNOON SESSION (14:00-15:30) – Roundtable discussion: The Interface Between Technology, the Regulation of judges, and the Judicial Process
 - Dr. Gali Aviv (Director of the Israeli Courts Research Division)
 - Prof. Michael Birnhack (Tel Aviv University)
 - Prof. Ethan Katsh (University of Massachusetts)
 - Dr. Keren Weinshall-Margel (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

- LATE AFTERNOON SESSION (16:00-17:30) – Paper presentation and discussion:
Guy Lurie, Amnon Reichman, & Yair Sagy, From Director to Manager: The Untold History of the Director of Courts of Israel
Commentators:
 - Prof. Ron Harris (Tel Aviv University)
 - Prof. Yoram Shachar (The Interdisciplinary Center Herzilya)
 - Prof. Chris Tomlins (University of California, Berkeley)

- WORKSHOP DINNER

December 22

- MORNING SESSION (10:00 -12:00) – Roundtable discussion:
Regulation Theory and the Management of Judges
 - Prof. Penny Darbyshire (Kingston University)
 - Prof. Philip Langbroek (Utrecht University)
 - Dr. Guy Lurie (The Israel Democracy Institute)
 - Prof. Jeffrey K. Staton (Emory University)
 - Dr. Sharon Yadin (Peres Academic Center)

- EARLY AFTERNOON SESSION (13:30-15:30) – Roundtable discussion: The Evolution of “the Judicial Business” and the Question of Court Administration – The Normative Challenge
 - Prof. Giuseppe Ferrari (Bocconi University)
 - Prof. David S. Law (Washington University in St. Louis & The University of Hong Kong)
 - Prof. Maimon Schwarzschild (University of San Diego)
 - Prof. Martine Valois (University of Montreal)

- LATE AFTERNOON SESSION (16:00-18:30) – Paper presentation and discussion:
Guy Lurie, Amnon Reichman, & Yair Sagy, Institutional Realism: The Hidden Importance of Agencification

(There will be a 10-minute intermission in the middle of this session)

Commentators:

- Dr. Ori Aronson (Bar-Ilan University)
- Prof. Michal Alberstein (Bar-Ilan University)
- Prof. Margit Cohn (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
- Prof. David Levi-Faur (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
- Prof. Issi Rosen-Zvi (Tel Aviv University)
- Dr. Raanan Sulitzeanu-Kenan (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

December 23

- MORNING SESSION (9:00-10:30) – Paper presentation and discussion:
Guy Lurie, Amnon Reichman, & Yair Sagy, Judicial Independence: The Internal Perspective in the 21st Century – The Threat from Within?

Commentators:

- Prof. Sujit Choudhry (University of California, Berkeley)
- Dr. Adam Shinar (The Interdisciplinary Center Herzilya)
- Prof. Rivka Weill (The Interdisciplinary Center Herzilya)

- LATE MORNING SESSION (11:00-12:30) – Plenary Discussion led by Eran Vigoda Gadot (University of Haifa): Setting The Agenda for the Further Research of Judicial Administration

- Prof. Philip Langbroek (Utrecht University)
- Prof. David S. Law (Washington University in St. Louis & The University of Hong Kong)
- Prof. David Levi-Faur (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
- Prof. Chris Tomlins (University of California, Berkeley)

